MEMORANDUM FOR: Associate Director-Management, NFAC

FROM : Associate Coordinator for Academic Relations and External Analytical Support

SUBJECT : Request to Travel and Speak

1. Kate Hedges, representing the Philadelphia World Affairs Council, called today inviting me to address the young professionals sector of her council. I have been in contact periodically with officers of these councils around the country since last year when I arranged for Admiral Turner to speak to their executive-directors during their national conference in Washington. During that meeting, the DCI expressed an interest in the Agency maintaining a dialogue with the World Affairs Council movement.

2. Hedges has asked me briefly to address a luncheon audience of young professional members of the Philadelphia council on June 28th and to take questions. The topic is open, but I propose to speak along the lines of the other public and academic appearances I have made. There will be no media coverage or special publicity surrounding the event; only Council members will be notified in advance that a CIA speaker will be present. Hedges has assured me that the meeting will be off-the-record.

3. This is to request your approval to speak as described and to travel at Agency expense to Philadelphia for one day.

[REDACTED] In the
 "external analytical support" area, I would also visit
 the Foreign Policy
 Research Institute
 while in Philadelphia.
 It's a small, but good center, formerly associated with Penn. I think
 [REDACTED] is there now.
